

How the 12 Apostles died: Andrew

Andrew: was crucified on an X-shaped cross in Patras, Greece. After being whipped severely by seven soldiers, they tied his body to the cross with cords to prolong his agony and suffering. His followers reported that when he was led toward the cross, Andrew saluted it in these words: "I have long desired and expected this happy hour. The cross has been consecrated by the body of Christ hanging on it." He continued to preach to his tormentors for two days until he expired.

Pastoral Message:

What You Doubt Is What You Do Without!

"For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith" Mark 11:23. KJV.

Many believers doubt the power of God to change things when they pray and so they miss out of many blessings. This is just like the children of Israel whom God promised to give them the Promised Land but when ten of the twelve spies told them about the giants they saw, they doubted God and so they had to do without going into the Promised Land! Be careful because what you doubt is what you do without!

In this year 2018, God has spoken good concerning us and has promised to do certain things in our lives and we must never doubt Him. We are also in a season of prayer and fasting and God has promised to answer us for it is written "And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear" KJV (Isaiah 65:24) and Jesus said "Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full". KJV (John 16:24). When we ask, it must be in faith and not in doubt. The Bible says "If you don't know what you're doing, pray to the Father. He loves to help. You'll get his help, and won't be condescended to when you ask for it. Ask boldly, believingly, without a second thought. People who "worry their prayers" are like wind-whipped waves. Don't think you're going to get anything from the Master that way, adrift at sea, keeping all your options open". MSG Bible (James 1:6-8). Don't ever doubt the promises of God or else you will have to do without them!

SUNDAY SCHOOL
TOPIC: DEALING WITH ADDICTIONS

MEMORY VERSE: "Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD" Isaiah 52:11 (KJV)

BIBLE PASSAGE: Proverbs 31:2-7

INTRODUCTION: Addiction is a compulsive tendency developed over a period of continuous and repeated actions or exposures to a certain substance. It can result in loss of willpower and self-esteem, loss of or shift in focus, social and emotional disconnect, poverty, death, et. According to the American Society of Addiction Medicine, addiction leads to characteristic biological, psychological, social and spiritual manifestations.

LESSON OUTLINES:

1. TYPES OF ADDICTIONS

1. Substance Addictions (Proverbs 20:1; 23:29-35; Isaiah 5:11-12; 28:7-8) e.g. drug abuse (Cocaine, opioids-heroin, amphetamines, benzodiazepines), alcoholism, smoking (cigarette, tobacco, marijuana, nicotine), caffeine (coffee, coke, cola), etc.
2. Behavioural or Process Addictions (1 Kings 11:4-5; Proverbs 31:3; 1 Peter 4:3): This is addiction to mood-altering behaviours such as gambling, sexual activity (Masturbation, sex, pornography, etc), eating disorders, spending, shopping, watching television, etc.

3. Position Addiction is a kind of addiction associated with power, influence and affluence (Proverbs 28:15). Just as with every other type of addictions, the position addict enjoys his power, influence or affluence at the expense of others. Examples are king Saul (1 Samuel 19:1, 8-10) and king Hezekiah (Isaiah 39:1-8).

2. OVERCOMING ADDICTIONS

1. Take a stand. You must first of all acknowledge that addiction is an affliction and you are already caught up in its web. Then, you must be willing to break free from its bondage while acknowledging that you cannot help yourself (Psalms 51:1-4).

2. Seek help (James 5:13-16). You must open up to God (Proverbs 3:4-5; 1 Peter 5:7) and to people who can be of help in breaking the evil habit. Surrender yourself for proper screening and therapies (pharmacotherapy, psychotherapy and spiritual therapy).

3. Avoid relapse. Relapse is to addiction what backsliding is to sin and its episode is usually worse than before the treatment/deliverance (Matthew 12:43-45; 2 Peter 2:20-22).

4. Keep your heart with all diligence (Proverbs 4:23) and renew it daily (Romans 12:1-2; Ephesians 4:22-23). Addiction is really a battle of the mind.

5. You must avoid exposures to all forms of triggers (1 Corinthians 15:33; 2 Corinthians 6:15-20; Ephesians 5:11-12).

6. Keep the company of those who can encourage you in your journey to total victory (Hebrews 10:24-25).

CONCLUSION

Withdrawal from addiction often comes with a myriad of challenges usually referred to as withdrawal syndrome. It is incumbent on the brethren not to cast away (Psalm 38:11) the victim at this critical time but to show him/her love and encouragement until the victory is won (2 Timothy 1:15-16; Psalm 133:1-3).

Hymn 1

1. When peace like a river attendeth my way, When sorrows like sea billows roll; Whatever my lot Thou hast taught me to say,

"It is well, it is well with my soul!"

It is well with my soul!

It is well, it is well with my soul!

2. Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come, Let this blest assurance control, That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate, And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

3. My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought, My sin, not in part, but the whole, Is nailed to His Cross, and I bear it no more; Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

4. O, Lord haste the day when my faith shall be sight, The clouds be rolled back as a scroll; the trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend, "Even so" It is well with my soul.

Hymn 2

1. Blessed Assurance, Jesus is mine!

Oh, what a foretaste of glory Divine!

Heir of salvation, purchase of God,

Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood!

This is my story, This is my song, praising my Saviour all the day long! 2x

2. Perfect submission, perfect delight!

Visions of rapture now burst at my sight!

Angels descending bring from above,

Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

3. Perfect submission, all is at rest.

I in my Saviour am happy and blest;

Watching and waiting, looking above,

Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.
